

272

N^o. 619. among the Islands by the Philadelphia Barge, a Spirit of Intemperance arisen among the people here, and the Beaver Capt. Michol has applied to us for the Barge at this Place to go on an Expedition among the Pargies We very readily agreed to fit her out with the necessaries wanted, but upon Examination, he declares her so out of repair as to be unfit. We therefore at his request recommend him to the attention of your Honorable Board, and if they think proper to indulge him with one of the Barges, we think it will answer a valuable Purpose.
President of the Special Council.

Sir,

In Council, 13th July, 1781.

620. We request you to furnish Captain Reed with as much Linnen and cloth as will make fourteen Coats and Vests, twenty pair woollen and as many linnen Overall, forty Shirts, and fourteen Hats with every necessary Trimming to compleat the floathing. You will have the floathing made up and we shall transmit the money as soon as they are finished.

M^r. Christopher Edelin.

Sir,

In Council, 13th July, 1781.

621. Cap^t. Reed with apply to you for twenty four pair of Shoes for his Company which we request you to furnish if in your Power agreeable to our former Letter to you on this Subject.
M^r. George Murdock.

Gentlemen,

In Council, 13th July, 1781.

622. M^r. Steward has applied to us for three Tons of Iron to enable him to finish the galley he has now on Hand for the State. We should be glad that M^r. Steward could be furnish ed with that Quantity, as it will be impossible for him to compleat compleat this Vessel without it.
Commissioners for confiscated Property.

Sir,

In Council, 13th July, 1781.

Your Letter of the 10th Instant we have received, with respect to the Horses procured in your County, we beg Leave to refer you to