

217
N<sup>o</sup> 638 for the recruiting Service. We request you to transmit it immediately in one or more bottoms to the Delaware which is the safest Port at this Time: should you have authentic Informations of the Enemy being out of the Bay and an immediate Conveyance, we would have you send it to this Place, lest we should not have you ~~at~~ delay it on that Account.
Robert Dorney Esq?

In Council, 20th July, 1781.
Sir, Mr. Thomas Donnellan of Baltimore Town is appointed to receive and provide for the recruits furnished by your County, you will be pleased therefore as soon as they are approved of to have them delivered to him.
Andrew Buchanan Esq?

In Council, 20th July, 1781
Sir, You will deliver to Mr. Westeny ten Barrels of Seconds or such Flour as will not pass Inspection to be charged to Mr. Stephen Steward on Account of the Galley which is building for the State.
James Calhoun Esq?

In Council, 25th July, 1781.
Sir, We are empowered by the general Assembly to purchase the Baltimore Galley, if on the Inspection of a proper and skilful Judge she should be found to be sound and fit for the Service of the State, and being acquainted with no Gentlemen whose Judgment can be more depended on; we appoint and request you to examine strictly every Part of her immediately, and report your Opinion of her State, Condition and Fitness for the Service of the State and her actual Value in Specie.
Stephen Stewards Esq?

In Council, 25th July, 1781.
Sir, We are informed that some Part of the Porpoise's Cargo is saved, and as it will be attended with Difficulty