

In Council, 20th Aug. 1781.

766. Sir, The Council intend this afternoon to go into the consideration of raising the Troops of Horse, and appointment of the Officers; and are desirous of your being present if your Health will permit. His Excellency Governor Lee.

In Council, 21th Aug. 1781.

767. Sir, Doct. Denwood has applied for an additional quantity of Medicines in Addition to the Chest sent from Baltimore. We enclose his List, but as we are at a Loss what may be proper, we request the favour of you to enquire of Doct. Denwood of the quantities in the Chest, and to give Order for such additional Medicines as can be spared out of the public Stores to make up a proper quantity for the third Regiment, just about to march.
Doct. James Murray.

In Council, 21th Aug. 1781.

768. Sir, In consequence of an Information lodged by Capt. Camp- bell of some Testimony to be delivered by Capt. Seagon against you relative to a Horse, you are desired to attend this Board this afternoon and be present at the Examination of Capt. Seagon.
John Buller Esq.

In Council, 21th Aug. 1781.

769. Sir, The number of Sick Soldiers are so great, and there being appearance of a dangerous Fever, it is necessary to have a proper Hospital assigned for them, and we are informed that the poor House is the properest place, under those circumstances the poor will be in great Danger. We will let you have Mr. Lee's house near Jernon Ferry for the poor, if you will be so obliging as to permit us to have the poor House for an Hospital.
