1101 Sir The enclosed Return from General Smallwood, will shew the Places where the new Recruits are to rendezvous, and where it will be necessary to supply Provisions for them. As it will be very expensive to appoint an Officer, or missionary, at every little Post, we hope it will be in your Power to adopt a more frugal Mode of accommodating the Troops. We have agreed to pay three Shillings a Day to each Officer actually employed in the Recruiting Service for Forage, it will therefore be necessary, that Measures be taken to procure as much Specie as will answer this Purpose. Honble Intendant.
