No 1136

Honble Intendant.

In Council 9th May 1782

Sir

We request you will be pleased to give us such Information, respecting 1137 Chimy as will enable us to reply to the enclosed Memorandums.

Honble Judge Hanson.

In Council 10th May 1782

Sir

In Reply to your Enquiries, respecting the real Situation of Chiney, 1138 we enclose you a Letter from the Honble Mr Hanson a Judge of the General Court, which being very full on the Subject, we have nothing to add.

Honble Maj. Genl Lincoln.

In Council 13th May 1782

Sir

Being informed by General Smallwood that there are about twenty Six disabled Soldiers belonging to the Maryland Line, now in this City, returned from the Southern Army much distressed for Cloathing. We request you to supply each of them immediately with a compleat Suit 1139. of Cloathing consisting of the Articles in the enclosed Return, and to take Measures for providing Suits for about one Hundred and eighty more, eighty of whom are dispersed about the State, and the others soon expected from the Southwards.

1 Coat, 1 Vest, 1 pr. Breeches or two Pair of Linen Overalls, 2 Shirts, 2 Pair of Stockings, 1 pr. Shoes, 1 Hat, and Blanket; if they have Linen Overalls, they will not want Breeches or Stockings.

Honble Intendant.

In Council 17th May 1782

Sir

We cannot pay Roger Trego's Account. From his own Representation he was draughted in May last, under the Act of the preceeding October, 1140. and if so, he can have no Claim on the public. If he had been draughted under the Act of May last, his Account would have been equally improper.

Honble Intendant.

In Council 20th May 1782

Sir

We are informed by the Governor of Virginia, that two Vessels of War, the Cormorant and Oliver Cromwell, belonging to that State, which went to the Head of the Bay with Troops, and from thence to Baltimore, to fit out, have been assessed by you and a Bond taken for the Payment of the Tax upon them. We wish to know, as early as possible, the Size and Strength 1141 of these Vessels, whether they were private or public Property, how long they lay at Baltimore, and whether they were loaded as well as fitted there. You will also inform us who gave Bond for the Payment of the Assessment.

Thomas Sollers Esq Naval Officer 1st District

In Council 21st May 1782

Gentlemen

We beg Leave to submit the Subject of the enclosed Letter from the Executive of Virginia, to your Consideration. If the Conduct of the Masters and Naval Officers 1142. is justified by the third fourth and thirty fifth Sections of the Act to raise Supplies for the Year fourteen hundred and eighty three, the Honorable Governor
