Ulto. and as early afterwards as poſsible, I ſubmitted the Subject of it to the Conſideration of the General Aſsembly of this State: you will perceive by the encloſed Reſolution of that Body, that they view the Matter in the ſame Light with your Excellency and I cannot but regret, that the raſh Conduct of an inferior Officer has induced you to entertain an Opinion delogatory to the Honor of a State which ever wiſhes to reſt on Terms of perfect Harmony and Friendſhip with the Commonwealth of Virginia. As there was an evident Neceſsity for my referring the Matter to the Conſideration of the General Aſsembly, I truſt that you will conſider it as a ſufficient Appology for my not returning an earlier Anſwer
