James Brice Presd.

Henry Hollingsworth.

June 25 1789.

* Sir,

I have formerly examined the case between the State and Mr Hamilton regarding the respective claims of each to Mr Linn's real property, and think that the Lands of Mr Linn are answerable to the State and are liable to be sold under the State's execution.

Your Obedt Servt

Henry Hollingsworth Esq

In Council 26th June 1789.

Sir,

We request you to order the necessary process to issue against John Beall, William Maughlin Samuel Groom Osborne, Charles Mankin and Adam 65 Fischer and their Securities, and against Robert Peters & others. You will delay the process against the other Collectors and their Securities until further directions.

We are Sir
