

advantage, he will hardly think himself justifiable in retaining it without our direction - The property taken is various in point of quality and local situation, some may perhaps be sold to advantage, and ought therefore to be disposed of immediately. But this the Agent is prevented from executing as it is not understood by him to be determined by the Board that any of it shall be sold before the meeting of the Assembly - The subject demands the fullest consideration and the Board consisting at present but of three Members, are not inclined to assume the arrangement of such intricate business - We therefore request your attendance as early as possible and are with great respect Sir
 James Bree Presid.

In Council September 21st 1789

83 Sir, As we have reason to apprehend that the seizure of the late Adam Fishers property on the Process against Mrs Fisher and her Securities, was illegal, you will please to contradict the notice you have given for the sale thereof, and we shall give the necessary information to the Agent, that he may not attend to purchase it - We are Sir James Bree Presid.
