In Council February 13. 1790

Sir,

113 We have before us your letter of the 12th instant, desiring to be made acquainted with the grounds on which the Board thought proper to omit your name in the late Judiciary Arrangement for Washington Comty - Your demand is perfectly rea-sonable - It can however be but imperfectly complied with at present, as no specific charges have been made against you in writing - It is true that the measure was occasioned by complaints and representations
