

98

In Council March 25. 1790

Sir,

122 It is represented to us that you have not transmitted to the Clerk of the General Court, the Bonds of Samuel Groomc Osborn as collector of the farm tax for the years 1787 and 1788. We therefore desire you to comply with the direction of the Law, by transmitting the same without further delay.

We are Sir, &c.

J. Howard

John Lee Gibson
Clerk Harf County.

In Council February 2. 1790

Gentlemen,

123 Being this Day informed that Mr Daniel Rawlings whom together with you we had appointed to assess and secure the collection of the half crown farm tax, is deceased, we have appointed Mr Thomas Macken in his place and notified him thereof by this opportunity.

We are Sir

Joseph Blake and
Joseph Wilkerson
Commissioners of the Tax Collectors Comty.

John Kelly, Presid.

see page 91. letter no. 112. —