

The payment of the Debt will fall on Livingston we request you to deliver the said bond to the Clerk of the General Court, that proceeds may immediately issue. We are Sir

Thos. Hancock Esq
Treasr of the State

Edward D.

In Council July 22. 1790

Gentlemen,

We do not think ourselves authorized in the instalment of the state debts to discharge all the Original Obligors in any bond, and therefore cannot consent to have Mr. Curdocks debt installed in the manner you desire, but considering his situa-tion, we are willing to provide a new bond from Mr. Petris and Mr. Bailey only - which is enclosed for the purpose of being executed and transmitted to us by the first of August. We are Sir

In Council July 26th 1790

Sir,

By a letter of the 18th Instant from our Secretary at New York we are informed that almost all the States have appointed persons of ability and proper talents to superintend the settlement of their respective accounts with the Union, and to support the validity and justice of the charges contained in those accounts, to which estimation
