Sir,

186. Doubts having arisen whether bonds given for the purchase of confiscated property will be a lien on the property of the obligor, if the said bonds are made payable in specie only, we think proper to instruct you to sell the Confiscated property and take bonds therefor agreeably to the directions of the act of Assembly entitled "An Act respecting the Debtors and creditors of this State under the Act to establish funds to secure the payment of the State debt within six years, and for the punctual payment of the annual interest thereon" passed at November Session 1789. We are &c

William Campbell Esq.
