

In Council August 22 1791

Sir,

In consideration of Mr Scotts having during the last month been before us to install the debt due from Josias Ringgold which he could not then complete by reason of the new bonds being defective in form we have this day agreed to receive a bond from the said Josias Ringgold with James 195 Ringgold Junr. Security, which appears to have been duly executed within the time limited by law, but which Mr Scott was by the sickness of his family prevented from laying before us till now. You will therefore please to receive this bond as in other cases of installment we are per
