

In Council December 3. 1792.

Sir,

To save you the inconvenience of an unnecessary journey to Annapolis we think it incumbent on us to contradict, as early as the receipt of the deficient returns would enable us, the information contained in our letter of the 29th ult<sup>o</sup>, and to acquaint you that the documents then wanting have put <sup>themselves</sup> under before you and of course although you have a very respectable number of votes, you are not among those chosen electors of the President and Vice President.

We are Sir
Abraham Ridgely Esq. }

In Council December 4th 1792

Gentlemen,

We think it necessary to communicate to the Legislature, a difficulty which has occurred in consequence of Joshua Sency Esquire having resigned his seat as a Representative of this State in the Congress of the United States, in order that the General Assembly may have an opportunity of removing it - Mr. Sency was elected in
