The power from which we derive our authority has the case in discussion, and has made no communications to us particularly relative to it, we therefore think it would be unwar-
-ratable in us to assume any Agency in it.

When we shall have received more precise instructions from the General Government of Vice-Consul of his Britannic Majesty.

James Bruce Presid.

In Council August 19th 1793

Gentlemen

77. We have so far complied with the request contained in your letter of the 7th instant as to order the delivery of seventy five (stand) of Arms with slings, for the use of your Com-pany, to Mr Henry Speck, who has undertaken to convey them to Baltimore, and to whom we have given an order for the like number
