

Annapolis September 3. 1793

Sir,

I do myself the honour to transmit herewith enclosed, copies of sundry letters between the Executive of this State and the Collector of the port of Baltimore, on the subject of the Brigantine Maxwell, taken by the "Sons of Liberty" and now delivered to the British Vice-Consul to be restored to her Owners agreeably to the instructions received from your Office.

I have the Honour to

The Honourable

Henry Knox Esq.

Secy of War

Thos. J. Lee

Annapolis September 3. 1793.

Sir,

I have the Honour to enclose Copies of two Letters lately received from Citizen Boisjomer Vice-Consul of the French Republic at Baltimore, and of my answer thereto, which you will be pleased to make known to the President of the United States.
