

of the President of the United States. The Vice Consul promises to furnish further testimony if it should be deemed necessary, on the return of the same Vessels, and hopes that no de-cision will in the interim be taken against the legality of the capture.

I have the honor to

Henry Knox Esq
Secretary of War

Thos L Lee

In Council November 5th 1793

Gentlemen,

117. By a private Resolution of the last Session of Assembly the Governor and Council were authorized and requested "to take such mea-sures respecting the Certificates paid into the Treasury or which might thereafter be paid in on account of Confiscated Property or for other debts payable in Certificates issued by this State, as should appear to them to be most conducive to the Interest of the State"

In virtue of the power communicated by this Resolve the Board came to a deter-mination to cause to be subscribed to the Continental