Sir

You will observe by the Proceedings of the Board which are enclosed, that we wish to obtain your assistance in carrying into Execution the Resolve of the General Assembly respecting the Magazine at Frederick Town.

It is impossible for us to form any opinion as to the Repairs that may be necessary or the expence which they will require, and the Business can be no otherwise effected than thro' the Means of some Person on the Spot who may be competent to judge of the Work that is required and to contract for its being done.
