

In Council Annapolis October 6 1796

Sir,

You will please to forward to us before the meeting of the General Assembly a return of all the arms and other military articles now in your care as armourer, and also a report of the state of the Magazine describing the size, and construction and noting any inconveniences or defects that exist; and an estimate of the Buildings that would be requisite to form a proper depository for the different articles.

M. Nicholas White

Armourer at

In Council Annapolis October 16 1796

Sir,

We have this day appointed you Chief Justice of the fifth District of this State, and we take the earliest opportunity of forwarding the Commission to you as the sitting of the Courts in the District has already commenced.

We wish to be informed as early as possible of the receipt of this letter and of your acceptance of the Commission if that should be your determination.

Richard Potts Esq.

Sir,

We are anxious to have the business which was committed to us respecting the sales of Military Stores entirely closed before the meeting of the General Assembly and although the proceeds of the sales of the articles sent from Easton and Annapolis may be very inconsiderable, we have to request that you will as soon as possible inform us of the amount of such sales as you may have already made and have the
