In Council December 23 1799

Sir,

The Governor and Council have taken into consideration your application for permission to remove the french prisoners from the jail in Frederick Town and under the pressure of the circumstances stated in your Letter they have thought it proper to grant it. You are therefore authorized to use the Barracks for the accommodation of the Prisoners.

As these Barracks is the property of the State of Maryland it may hereafter be deemed proper by the Legislature to claim a compensation from the United States for the use of them. we would
