In Council Annapolis May the 17/1801

Sir

In the absence of the Governor, we have taken up the Petition of Jacob Doyle, a person confined in Baltimore Jail, and who has been sentenced, by the Criminal Court of Baltimore County, to six Months imprisonment, and, at the expiration of that period, to stand half an hour on the Pillory; from the latter part of which punishment he has applied to the Governor to be exempted.

We are informed that the time for which the said Criminal was adjudged to suffer imprisonment, will expire on the 28th instant and that he has already been in custody (under a commitment) for
