John F. Mease

Annapolis October 26/1802

Dear Sir

In the letter you did me the honor to write me of the 7th of July last you gave me information that the Interest due on the loan of two hundred thousand Dollars made by the State of Maryland to the Commissioners of the City of Washington and guaranteed by Congress would be immediately paid. The sum of fifteen thousand Dollars then due on this loan, was soon after actually remitted by the Treasury of the United States, to that of this State, but the succeeding quarterly payment of three thousand Dollars which became due on the first of this month, still remains unpaid

It contained also an assurance, that the loan of fifty thousand dollars with the Interest due thereon and which now amounts to three thousand Dollars would be also paid on the first Monday in November next.

As the Legislature of Maryland convene on that day to enable the Executive to lay before them a statement of the public resources, they are anxious that you would direct the Secretary of the Treasury to remit on the first of November next the sum of fifty six thousand, two hundred and fifty Dollars which will be due to Thomas Haewood Treasurer of this State.

The President of the United States

With the sincerest affection & respect
I remain your obedient
John F. Mease
