

In Council Annapolis January 2 1807

Sir

Your letter of this date I just now received. We gave to Judge Dancy on yesterday the only direction the Executive had the power to give, as we possess no discretion but that of executing the laws. Sir

Your letter of the sixth Instant requesting our Quota of Militia to be immediately at a moment's warning, came safe to hand. We shall with all possible dispatch attend to the execution of the same, as all America must feel it a duty to be prepared to protect itself against the insidious and unprincipled outrages of the British.
