

you will immediately collect your Battalions and march them to this place or such part thereof as you can collect by some other way to the new If you should not be able to collect the Battalions immediately you will come on with such part as can be most conveniently assembled and march to the new
Major Richard S. ...
Levon Under

2

Cambridge April 21. 1783

Sir
The appearance of the Enemy's Army in the neighbourhood of this place has rendered it necessary to order the Garrison to be collected together at the new place as the most convenient place for the Garrison to assemble in the present situation of the Enemy's Army. I have therefore ordered the Garrison to be collected together at the new place as the most convenient place for the Garrison to assemble in the present situation of the Enemy's Army. I have therefore ordered the Garrison to be collected together at the new place as the most convenient place for the Garrison to assemble in the present situation of the Enemy's Army.
Major Richard S. ...
Levon Under

Cambridge April 21. 1783

Sir
You will immediately collect your Battalion of Grenadiers and march them to this place and place yourself under the command of Major S. ...
Captain John ...
Levon Under

Cambridge April 21. 1783 5 o'clock

Sir
In consequence of the appearance of the Enemy in front of this place I have ordered Major S. ... to detain him of his Cavalry and place in the city and take command of them and I have to request you will direct Captain ... with some of his men as he can collect in the city to remain here and place himself under the command of Major S. ...
Major Richard S. ...
Levon Under

Cambridge April 21. 1783 after 6 o'clock

Sir
A number of the British Dragoons having just arrived off this place makes it necessary to call in some of the Militia as can be more readily obtained, I have therefore to require