

London August 17th 1757

In answer to your letter received a few days since we have to inform you that the Office in hand is to be continued until the 1st of October. The impressions which have been ordered for the defence of this place are of the nature of a General Service but we do not think it will be necessary to go to the field. We have the honor to be Majors William Boscawen
Seven Bridges

London August 17th 1757
I have the honor to acknowledge the letter which was presented by Mr. Ingle and to be assured that you have been supplied with the necessary quantity of powder and that the same shall be delivered in the same manner. We have the honor
Majors General Ingle
Seven Bridges

London August 17th 1757
We have the honor to acknowledge the letter which was presented by Mr. Ingle and to be assured that you have been supplied with the necessary quantity of powder and that the same shall be delivered in the same manner. We have the honor
Majors General Ingle
Seven Bridges

These are several pages of News in the hands of Major Boscawen of which you are the only person who has been ordered on your part to be sent