

In Council Annapolis the 2^d 1816

I have the honor to transmit herewith a copy of an Act of the General Assembly of Maryland entitled An act for erecting a Bridge over the River Potomac which I have been instructed to forward to you.

His Excellency the Governor of Virginia

I have the honor to be
Charles Ridgely of Hunt

Sir

Council Chamber Annapolis February the 2^d 1816

I am sorry to inform you that your letter of the twenty ninth of January was not received in time to be communicated to the General Assembly by its adjournment. A Resolution hastily drawn up was passed by the Assembly. A copy of it is herewith transmitted. It will be found to have omitted by accident to authorize a cession of jurisdiction over those places, which have been purchased for the purpose of erecting Arsenals. a cession of the jurisdiction of these sites will no doubt be made by the next legislature.

The Honble the Secretary of War

I have the honor to be
Charles Ridgely of Hunt

Sir

Council Chamber Annapolis Feby 29 1816

Information has been received at this Department that a certain John Smith of Loven stole on the Night of the twenty first of November last from the stable of John Harris a gray Horse and that he is now confined in some Jail in the State of Delaware. I have in the name of the Executive authority of the State of Maryland to demand of your Excellency the said John Smith of Loven, as a Fugitive from Justice agreeably to the Act of Congress relating thereto and that he be delivered to Mr. James Mills who has been appointed Agent for the purpose of removing him to this State. For your Excellency's satisfaction I have enclosed you the Documents on which that application is grounded.

His Excellency the Governor of Delaware

I have the honor to be

Sir

Council Chamber Annapolis April 28 16

A certain Andrew Hammel alias Gust Hammel and a person called George Spence are charged by the affidavit of Barnett Lutz of the County of Franklin in the State of Pennsylvania with having passed counterfeit Money to the said Barnett Lutz an authenticated copy of which affidavit has been transmitted to me by His Excellency Simon Snyder Governor of Pennsylvania: and it being likewise represented to me that the said Andrew Hammel alias Gust Hammel and George Spence have fled from the said State from Justice and are now confined in the Jail of Washington County in this State, I have to request that you will deliver these
