

In Council at Annapolis

February 12. 1848.

Ordered that the Clerks of the Council write to the different Agents who have not accounted for the collection of arms requiring a return on or before the 20th day of March, stating the arms collected, the places where deposited, the money expended with the specific charges & vouchers.