

Council Chamber Annapolis Apr. 21st 1734

Dear Sir

I duly laid your Letter of the 22nd of March, before the Governor and Council and they have directed me to say that the forty sixth section of the Militia Law passed at December Session Eighteen hundred and Eleven fully provides for the case ^{stated} in your Letter and have therefore declined passing any order.

Your obedient Servant.

James Murray Esquire