

accounts. The supplies were furnished on best terms that the circumstances

A Resolution passed at the last session of the General Assembly For your better satisfaction however, I enclose you a copy of the Resolution alluded to. It would have afforded me much pleasure if I could have given you more pleasing information

I am with much respect your obedient servant

Thomas Pinkney
Clerk of the Council

(Henry) Dardin Esquire