

Council & Chamber Annapolis
Sept 27 1820

Dear Sir

When the Executive adjourned on the 12th of July they did fully expect to meet again on the 28 of August, but an unexpected event rendering an earlier meeting indispensable, they formed a board on the seventh ~~instant~~ of August last, since which there has been no council to suit therefore which I informed you would be brought against you by the present Court, to recover any balance that might appear to be due from you to the State on the first of September the 1000 dollars that were advanced to you ^{has} been brought. The Executive will meet again on the third Monday in October, when if
