

enclosing the amount of the two accounts in the way that you mentioned. I should be glad to see the language in which your letter of to day is couched has not a little surprised (me) in as much as you permitted ^{plu} a length of time to elapse without ^{even} me in mind of a delinquency - you will find the needful enclosed which you will please to acknowledge by the first mail. I have never been a Defendant in any case and in but one or two instances plaintiff

Your obed^t Serv^t

Minna Conway

Mr Benjamin Tapscott