

on, on account of their being defective for the want of your Affidavit. If it is in your power at this time to put these muster rolls in due form, you will by so doing render a service to the State as the Secretary of War will no doubt consider them in that event sufficient vouchers. I have written to Mr Gough several times on that subject but have received no answer from him.

I am very respectful
Your obed^t serv^t
Ninian Pinkney

Colonel Athanasius Pennington

Leonard Town