His Excellency Governor Findlay's letter to the Governor of Maryland, with the accompanying documents, demanding William Quinlin charged with having violated the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as a fugitive from justice, were duly received at this Department, and I have to inform you, that tho' the Governor of this State did not consider the papers to be in due form, he ordered the said Quinlin to be delivered to Mr. George Campbell the Agent appointed to receive him - The law of Congress respecting fugitives from justice requires, that the copy of the Indictment or affidavit as the case may be, should be certified by the Chief Magistrate of the State making the demand to be authentic; or in other words, that the person taking the affidavit, or certifying the
