

Council Chamber Annapolis
March 27 1820.

Sir

The Executive have it in contemplation to move the arms that are in store in Baltimore to the arsenal at Frederick Town at least the good ones - and those that are considered worthless to this place you will therefore be pleased to inform ^{me} as soon as convenient how many stand of arms a waggon can carry - and how much a waggon returning to Frederick should ask by the load - If none have been received by you since your last return or delivered out your return dated in December last and filed in this Department will answer and
