

May 31st 1820

Dear Sir

The notes & Proceedings is waiting for you since money is important that they should be sent to the different countries without delay - I have sent you a receipt which I will thank you to sign & return it to me by the person who comes to receive them. If you will forward to me by the meeting of the next to take place on the second Monday in June your account together with the Receipts of the Clerks showing that laws and votes & Proceedings have been received, an order will be passed in your favour for two hundred dollars amount allowed you for that service.

Lambert Cayland Esquire