

Council Chamber Annapolis August 10. 1819

Sir

I have the honor to inform you that the five copies of the public Journals of the Senate and House of Representatives, and the documents mentioned in your letter of the nineteenth ultimo, have been duly received at this Department, and will be distributed agreeably to the Resolve of congress.

I am with the highest respect your most obedient servant

The Honble

John Quincy Adams Secretary of State of the United States.

Council Chamber Annapolis November 1st 1819

Sir

I have the honor to transmit to you a copy of an act passed by the General Assembly of Maryland at the last session entitled, "An Act for settling the Western Limits of this State, and the dividing and boundary line between this State and the Commonwealth of Virginia," and to request that you will be pleased to lay the same before the Legislature of the State over which you preside at the next session. It is my duty at the same time to express to you the anxious wish of the Legislature of this State that a similar Law may be passed by the General Assembly of Virginia.

I am Sir, with the highest respect

Your obed^t serv^t

Charles Goldsborough

As Excell^y

The Governor of Virginia
