

Council Chamber Annapolis March 31st 1820

Sir

I have the pleasure to transmit to you two sets of the Laws of Maryland compiled by Chancellor Kelly, for the use of the Department of State together with four copies of the Laws passed at the last session.

In a short time a continuation of the laws now compiling by Chancellor Kelly, Harris and Watkins will be ready for delivery and as soon as they are I will forward two copies of them to you - They embrace the laws passed at December Session 1818

I have the honor to be

with great respect

Your obed<sup>t</sup>. Serv<sup>t</sup>

Samuel Sprigg

The Honourable

John Quincy Adams Secretary of State of the United States.

---

Council Chamber Annapolis March 31st 1820

Sir

In compliance with the directions of the Legislature of the State of Maryland I do myself the pleasure to transmit to you a copy of the Laws of Maryland from the earliest period of its colonization to the December Session 1818. for the use of the Athenaeum a Literary Institution in Philadelphia.

I have the honor to be

with great respect

Your obed<sup>t</sup>. Serv<sup>t</sup>

Samuel Sprigg

The Honourable

William Tilghman President of the Athenaeum Society in Philadelphia

---

Council Chamber Annapolis March 31st 1820

Sir

In compliance with the directions of the Legislature of the State of Maryland I do myself the pleasure to transmit to you a copy of the