

I find upon examination of the Records in the Council Chamber that it was the practice previous to my appointment as Clerk of the Council to Record the Letters from the Government and the Letters of the Council in separate books, but not perceiving the necessity of that practice I had determined to Record all the correspondence from the Executive Department in one book which I have commenced immediately after my appointment.

Thos. Gilbreth Clerk
of the Council

In Council January 13th 1825

To the Honble the President of the Senate and the Honble the Speaker of the House of Delegates relative to the Constitutionary

We have the honor to transmit herewith a communication from the Directors of the Maryland Constitutionary accompanied by the annual Abstract of their proceedings rendered to the Department agreeably to Law.

We have the honor to be with great respect your Obedt Serv^t
James Stevens

(Signed)

In Council Annapolis Jan 13th 1825.

Sir, I am directed to transmit you the enclosed papers and to request of you such information upon the subject to which they relate as your intimate acquaintance therewith enables you to afford.

I have the honor to be with great respects your Obedt Serv^t
Thos. Gilbreth Clerk

John L. Egan
Clerk

The enclosed papers related to a claim upon the General Government for interest upon money advanced by the State and expended in the Military Service during the late War with Great Britain.

J. C.

relative to claim upon
M. G. G. Abstract