Murder of Miss Cunningham

Sir,
By a statement in the Carroll Ferry Free Press, the Executive are strongly inclined to believe, that the person lately arrested in that neighborhood in the murder of Miss Fainia Cunningham, and feeling anxious to bring him to trial, have taken measures to tend on with as little delay as possible such evidence as can be procured to ascertain the truth of their charges, and would be gratified to have him detained if possible until the evidence can be examined.

To the Sheriff of Jefferson County Virginia

Yours, respectfully

W. D. Culbert Clerk
