

at this Department. I have just written to His Excellency advising him of the contents of your letter, and when I hear from him in reply, will write you again.

W. P. Canfield
Baltimore.

Respectfully yours &c
Thos. Cullrett Clerk

Council Chamber, Annapolis June 24 1825
Gentlemen,
Yours of the 18th inst. has just come to hand and contents observed.

I have no authority to direct the publication in any paper not included in the order of the Executive, nor do I have any thing to do with in determining what paper any matter directed to be published shall be inserted in. I shall this evening enclose your letter to His Excellency, and await his directions.

Wm. Greaves & Herbert
Editors of the Herald
Baltimore

Very respectfully,
Yours ob. servt
Thos. Cullrett Clerk

Publication of Laws

Council Chamber June 24 1825.

Sirs, The Scheme of the Seventh Class (University, Lottery) herewith enclosed I received this evening from His Excellency, and hasten to forward it (having first obtained the signature of the Chancellor) agreeably to your request.

W. P. Canfield
Baltimore

Very respectfully,
Yours ob. servt
Thos. Cullrett Clerk

Lottery Scheme

Council Chamber Annapolis June 25 1825

Sirs, I enclose you a Warrant respecting the execution of Turley until Friday the 5th of August. That no person authorized or presumed may be drawn from the respite, nor any hope indulged that may disapprove its object. I take upon me to say that you ought that has yet appeared there seems to be no probability of a commutation of the final punishment. This however is by no means intended to discourage any representation in his favor that his friends may think proper to make.

Your letter of the 20th was received last evening and immediately transmitted to His Excellency, notwithstanding the Relative to William Turley with a respite.