

Sir,

Council Chamber

Annapolis November 11 1825

I have the pleasure of handing you the enclosed commissions for officers in the Regiment under your command.

You will perceive that the commissions for Captain Hayden and other officers of his troop are dated 20th July last. Their appointment was then made but I was directed not to forward their commissions, until the former officers of the ~~troop~~ troop should be accounted for your last letter to the Adjutant General being laid before the Executive they directed me to forward the commissions.

Colo. Baker Division
Frederick Town

Very respectfully, I have the honor to be your Ob. Serv.
Thos. Culbreth

Sir,

Council Chamber

Annapolis Nov. 4 1825

At the late meeting of the Executive, Captain Joseph G. Johnson was re-appointed Captain of the company he formerly commanded, Shmuel Day his Lieutenant, David How Burton ensign, and the commissions delivered to Captain Johnson, who was here.

Colo. William Hitchcock
Baltimore

I remain respectfully your Ob. Serv.
Thos. Culbreth

Sir,

Council Chamber

Annapolis Nov. 4 1825.

Herewith send you copies of the documents filed by you in this Department, relative to Colo Hitchcock's allegations against you.

Your letter of the 29th ultimo has been received, and will be laid before the Executive at their next meeting. I don't feel myself authorized to write to Colonel Hitchcock in the manner you request. I shall simply inform him that you are re-appointed, as I previously had done, that you denied his allegations.

Capt. Joseph G. Johnson
Baltimore

I remain yours &c.
Thos. Culbreth
