

Council Chamber

Richmond April 21 1826

Sir
The enclosed copy of a report of the committee of the House of Delegates of this State, and the resolutions passed by the General Assembly at their late session, in regard to the boundary line, in compliance with the said committee.

With the highest consideration
I have the honor to be, your Obedient servant

By Excellency
John Andrew
Governor of Virginia
Richmond

Chas. Kent

And Report and Resolutions entered in the above recited the Fisheries in the Susquehanna.

Council Chamber

Richmond April 21 1826

Compliance with a request of the General Assembly of this State I have the honor of transmitting herewith to your Excellency the enclosed Resolutions providing for the Legislature of Virginia shall determine for the adjustment of the boundary line between this State and the Commonwealth of Virginia.

The Legislature of Maryland have repeatedly manifested an anxious desire for the amicable adjustment and definitive settlement of the aforesaid boundary line, and of the provision now made in the proposed will is secured in by Virginia in the accomplishment of that interesting object is deemed so impartial that it cannot fail to be satisfactory. I indulge the hope that your Excellency the uncertainty so long existing upon this subject will submit the Resolutions to the favorable consideration of the Legislature of Virginia at their next meeting.

With the highest consideration
I have the honor to be remain

By Excellency
John Andrew
Governor of Virginia
Richmond

Your Excellency most Obedient
Chas. Kent

Council Chamber

Richmond April 21 1826

Sir
The Executive yesterday presented you a letter signed for the Western line and instructed me to inform you that a commission will be sent you when you shall give orders thereon by line
Thomas O'Keefe, Secy
of the Executive

Remain with respect your Obedient servant

Wm. Culbreth