Council Chamber

Annapolis April 22 1826

Sir
The two Resolutions of the General Assembly of this State for which the enclosed are copies have but just come to my knowledge and are now transmitted for your consideration, and as it seems proper the directions should be.

I remain with great respect your Obedt Servt

Thos. Culbertson

A separate copy of the above is deposited to each of the Senators and Representatives from this State in the Congress of the United States.

The Resolutions, enclosed related to the Colonization Society and the Survey of a Route for a National Road from Washington to New Orleans.

Council Chamber

Annapolis April 24 1826

Having received a letter from John V Steele Esquire, from which I presume that the name of William Yates, was accidentally omitted in the second Commission of Justice of the Peace for Dorchester County, I send you a new Commission, with his name, as he was appointed at the same time with the others.

Respectfully yours &c

Thos. Culbertson Clerk

Ezekiel Richardson Esquire
Clerk of Dorchester County
Cambridge

Council Chamber

Annapolis April 24 1826

Sir
The enclosed Commission is sent, in consequence of a representation from Mr. Wiggins that the names of two of the Gentlemen intended to be Commissioners were not correctly given in to the Executive viz. Hopkins Sturwood and Perier.

Respectfully yours &c

Thos. Culbertson

The Executive ordered a correction of the names upon the Report and a new Commission to be sent.
Clerk of Montgomery County, Rockville.
