

Council Chamber

Edinburgh April 25 1826

Dear Sir,

I have inform Mr John Ross, that the Executive have not authority to proceed in referring the Army in the Army at Easton and in consequence decline further employing him.

Yours truly
James F. Ross
Armsman Easton

Respectfully, your Obedt Servt.
Thos. Fullerton

Council Chamber

Edinburgh April 26 1826

Dear Sir,

I am instructed by the Executive to inform you that they are not feel authorized by the Resolution of the General Assembly to order the transmission of the papers you submitted to their inspection; and that they have consequently declined making any further order as the subject.

I am further instructed to inform you that they decline making any further advance in regard of the work, having nothing before them to read the value of the labour already performed, nor any data to estimate the whole amount when completed.

Yours truly
James F. Ross
Armsman Easton

With much respect
Yours Obedt Servt.
Thos. Fullerton

Council Chamber

Edinburgh April 25 1826

Gentlemen,

I am instructed by the Executive to request that you report to them at their next meeting, which will be held on the 30th of June next, the respective capacities and conveniences for reception and storage of the arms of the several Barracks, and the respective advantages and disadvantages of the several Barracks, and generally the several advantages and disadvantages of the several Barracks, and also, in opinion, in opinion of you, should differ, in the plan and reach upon which it (or they) are founded, what number of Barracks of the State might be provided with arms, and whether it will be more proper, considering the extent and convenience of the State, of the arms and Barracks, to have a single Barrack only, sufficient to contain the whole, or several Barracks, connected or near each other, or several Barracks, in a corner, part of the City, & with any other information that your experience and knowledge of the subject generally will enable you to afford, in order to aid the Executive