Washington 20th November 1827

Dear Sir,
I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your favor of the 27th of September last, in relation to the communication from the British Minister at Washington, in consequence of the mention of improper views by the Earl of Castlereagh, and now have the pleasure to enclose you a copy of a letter written by the said Earl to such effect as you may desire, in relation to the appointment and immediate introduction of those views, which, I presume, will put a stop to similar leanness in future. I need not be found receiving the attention of the Legislature will be called the subject of the annual meeting next month.

With the highest consideration
I have the honor to remain

Dear Sir,
I have returned from the City at the time of the receipt of this office of your letter of the 17th instant, must be my apology for not sooner giving you an answer. Since Doctor Edwards application for the (M. D.) is possibly mentioned in your letter (in appearing at a room adjoining this) has been whether or not they are all I do not know, if they have been found. I shall send them by the Steam Boat on Monday last next to your address, and I will have further search made for them, and if I find any send them also.

With great respect I have the honor to remain Obedt Servt

Dear Sir,
I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 27th instant, I have ordered the records and papers of this office, and have not been able to find any such demand of signature from Justice of the Court. There are many loose papers left by my predecessor in an unarranged state, which are scattered through the files of 1823 & 1824, in which latter year he died. I have been told that the demand is amongst those papers, but my own search has never been able to find it, and it is impossible to arrange those papers in a few days, as you proposed, but intend to do so as soon as I can find the papers. I am certain of it, and the public attention, that is, the next paper has been demanded. I would respectfully suggest that the Court
