

Gentlemen,

Executive Department
Annapolis February 10th 1829.

We require your views on the House of Delegates in relation to the Appellate Court. This is a final and respectfully request that you will furnish us with the information sought for at as early a period as your business will permit.

The President of Directors of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal
Washington.

We have the honor to be
with the highest consideration
Yours Obedt Servts.
David Martin

Gentlemen,

Executive Department
Annapolis February 10th 1829.

~~It~~ We have been advised from your office that by the House of Delegates of this State and respectfully request that you will forward this Department at as early a day as may be convenient the information asked for.

The President and Directors of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal
Washington.

We have the honor to be
with great respect
Yours Obedt Servts.
David Martin

Sir,

Council Chamber
Annapolis February 14 1829.

I have your letter with a commission for James Almon as Lieutenant of the Regiment under your command, vice Edward Arrick in Ohio. William Hutchens appears as proposed as the captain under the said commission. He was appointed October 16th 1827 and John B. Lane on the 15th of the following June. The Executive declined appointing a replacement they hear further from you after receiving the foregoing information.

I remain very respectfully
Yours Obedt Servts.
H. Culbreth

Colo. William Hutchcock
Baltimore