

Dear Sir,

General Chamber
Annapolis, November 26th 1829

I am not prepared to answer your question whether mebbe you had your company of 10000. ~~The~~ ~~will~~ ~~be~~ ~~assured~~ ~~that~~ There are in the ordinary course of the red sheets which have been cleared and repaired within the last few years but as many of you satisfy all the applications in file. It is known however that many the 8 years who have had applications for same and did not obtain them immediately do not now want them. Therefore, think it likely that your application with a bond for the safe keeping and return of masks for company would be accepted. I enclose you a blank bond. If you send the office of the company to give the bond.
The Executive will be in Office until the week before the meeting of the Legislature.

Yours
James Kennedy Esq
Cagers town

Remain very respectfully your obedient
H. Gilbreth

Dear Sir,

General Chamber
Annapolis, November 26th 1829

I have signed and received returns upon the receipts enclosed in yours of the 23rd Instant. It is also returned by me to the Comptroller of the Public Accounts, which you state he has returned to you from the General Office as a dead letter.
By referring to the Executive Proceedings I find that Thomas Crompton was re-appointed as Comptroller of the Public Accounts.

Yours
James Kennedy Esq
Cagers town

Very respectfully your obedient
H. Gilbreth

Dear Sir,

General Chamber
Annapolis, November 31st 1829

The Legislature having directed the Governor to cause head and foot stones to be placed at the graves of William Price and Peter Cook late Members of the House of Delegates I am instructed by His Excellency to request that you will have them prepared of the ordinary size and send them down as soon they may be put up before the meeting of the Legislature Enclosed you find a memorandum of the respective inscriptions to be put upon them. Please send your account with the stones.

Wm Williams Esq
Baltimore

With the highest respect Remain your obedient
H. Gilbreth

P.S. send them at a rate of a day or two before the meeting as they have to be ordered.
