

August 6th 1820.

To the Hon. W. F. Barry.
Post Office Lane.

Sir.

In consequence of the absence of the Governor and Council from the seat of Government, your letter of 9th June was not received by them until within a few days.

I am now instructed by them to acknowledge its receipt, and to inform you, that no change has been made for several years in the subdivisions of this State for magistrates, and that the list of Counties and seats of Justice, accompanying your letter is perfectly correct.

I have the honor to be
Yours
J. Murray

August 16th 1820.

To William M. Lambdin Esq.
Treasurer of the State

Sir.

I am instructed by the Governor and Council to enclose you your Bond, which was received at this Department the 23rd ulto, and has been since that time under their consideration; and to say that the securities are not approved.

They have at the same time instructed me to request, that you will at an early day, send on a new bond, with additional securities, to be laid before them at their next Session in October next.

I am Sir
very respectfully
Yours
J. Murray

August 31. 1820.

To Doct. James A. McCallish.

Sir.

I have the honor by direction of the Executive to inform you, that you were appointed at their last Session, a Trustee of the Maryland University, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Rowley Johnson Esq.

I have the honor to be

Doct. James A. McCallish

Dear Sir

By accident and much occupation, I have omitted to inform you of your appointment at the last Session of the Executive in July to the Office of Trustee of the Maryland University in the place of Rowley Johnson Esq. resigns.

This was the only appointment made, for which there appears to be no form of Commission on our Office, and
