Sir,

Council Chamber
Annapolis, April 21 1831

Your letter of the 16th inst. enclosing an account for the removal of the body of [unclear] from the State was duly received. The account was not in [unclear] at the time the receipt of your letter was received, and when the account was laid before them and [unclear] on the amount of the above draft on the Treasury

The draft bears the third fees and expenses charged on the account of [unclear] for the compensation of [unclear] and yourself for one [unclear] per [unclear] per day and you, the deputy, at $2 per day the usual [unclear] allowance. Mr [unclear] had charged 8 days but was only allowed four, as that was believed to be sufficient time for the performance of his duty.
