Dear Sir,

Council Chamber
Annapolis April 22nd 1831.

The Governor and Council, at their late meeting appointed a Commission to extend the limits of direct taxation within the City of Baltimore 1831 as authorized by Law, and requested by the authorities of the City. Hereunto I enclose you a joint Commission for the Gentlemen appointed, and shall give each of them a notice of his appointment, and that the Commission has been forwarded to your care.

I remain with the highest regard your Obedient

Chas. Williams Stewart Mayor of the City of Baltimore

H. S. Culbreth

Clerk

Wm. Luke Terman P
William Patterson Esq
Baltimore

Council Chamber
Annapolis April 22nd 1831.

Sir,

At the late meeting of the Governor and Council, you were appointed a Commission in conjunction with Charles Herriott Riggs Esq of Anne Arundel County, and John S. Leonard Esq of Baltimore County, to extend the limits of direct taxation within the City of Baltimore so far as the same is settled, built or improved, and in which the usual regulations for watching and lighting or cleaning the streets, and or night be established as provided for by an act passed by the last General Assembly entitled "An additional act relating to the City of Baltimore."

A joint Commission has been issued and forwarded to the City of Baltimore, to the care of the Mayor.

Very respectfully Yours Obedient

Col Thomas Emory
Centerville
